

SINCE 1847

The St Hugo collection honours the legacy of Barossa Winemaking legend Hugo Gramp, the grandson of pioneering vigneron Johann Gramp, who founded the Gramp & Sons winery in 1847. Hugo led the winery through a period of unparalleled growth from 1920 to 1938. Today, Hugo's visionary leadership and passion for wine are personified in the St Hugo range.

Wines by the Bottle

In 1983, Hugo Gramp's legacy was honoured with the release of the first wine named 'StHugo'. The addition of the title 'St' was inspired by the charming European tradition of naming vineyards after Saints in order to bestow good fortune upon them. Crafted from the 1980 vintage, the first St Hugo Coonawarra Cabernet Sauvignon was hailed for its power and elegance, much like the great man himself. Today, more than 30 vintages on, St Hugo continues to set for excellence in Australian Cabernet Sauvignon.
